HERE ARE SOME GREAT ACTIVITIES FOR YOU TO DO AROUND AVONMOUTH TRAIN STATION

EXPLORE BRISTOL AND BEYOND WITH THE SEVERN BEACH LINE

Journey along the historic and scenic Severn Beach Line which runs from Bristol Temple Meads, through Bristol's suburbs, alongside the River Avon and on to the coast at Severn Beach. Explore and discover local wildlife, places to play, stunning views and fascinating history around each of the stations.

AVONMOUTH

Still a port of call for large cruise ships, Avonmouth was originally built to provide housing for local dockworkers and remains an important part of the region's shipbuilding and mercantile industries. Nestled in the shadows of historical dock buildings are a number of small green spaces, playgrounds and shops.

A AVONMOUTH PARK

Well over 100 years old, this triangular park has accessible pathways and shady trees around it. On the site of the old bandstand is a modern, fenced (dog-free) and well-equipped playground. Scattered throughout the park are large boulders and logs – great for running around and playing on. The Victorian toilet building is no longer in use.

B AVONMOUTH COMMUNITY CENTRE

Housing the library, this centre is an important community hub and resource for local residents. It offers a wide range of activities and events for all ages and needs. Built in 1886, the building was a school until 1971. Local residents took over the management of the building and Avonmouth Community Centre Association was created.

C AVONMOUTH CE PRIMARY SCHOOL

During World War II, this building was a veterinary hospital. Today, horseshoes are still being found in the school's garden soil.
